Center for Executive and Continuing Education

This AP Summer Institute has been endorsed by

THE AP PROGRAM

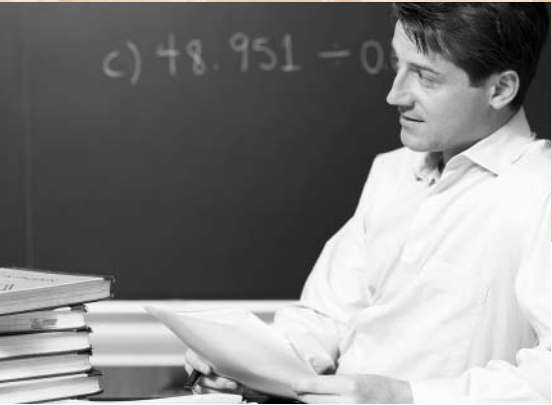

The Institute for the Teaching of Advanced Placement will be held twice at Oakland University, Rochester, Mich., from July 17-21 and July 24-28, 2006.

Co-sponsored by Oakland University and The College Board, these week-long conferences offer excellent training for teachers with experience and those new to advanced placement.

For new teachers, there will be special sessions devoted to becoming better informed about the fundamentals of the advanced placement program.

For experienced teachers, the program is a chance to learn about the newest trends in their content areas.

Oakland University's Advanced Placement Institute is ideally suited for department chairpersons, gifted and talented teachers and curriculum coordinators.

Key Session Elements

- Structuring AP courses
- Responding to student feedback
- Utilizing a variety of proven teaching methods
- Preparing students for the AP test while keeping instruction engaging
- Developing AP test-taking strategies
- Reviewing released AP tests
- Diagnosing scores, what constitutes a 3, 4 or 5?
- Sharing a variety of College Board essentials
- Receiving appropriate AP textbooks and resources

Expert Instructors

Institute instructors for each subject area have been carefully selected for their actual experience with Oakland University's AP Program. All taught AP in their respective schools for many years. Most have been part of leading AP workshops around the country and have read and graded AP exams.

Gary Schubert, Director

Disability Services

Students with disabilities who require special accommodations, should make arrangements with the Office of Disability Services at (248) 370-3260.

Meals

As part of the program, breakfast and lunch will be provided.

Lodging

Rooms are available at a special rate for OU students at the Hilton Suites, 2300 Featherstone Road, Auburn Hills, MI 48326, (248) 334-2222, www.hilton.com. When calling ask for the Oakland University AP block. The Hilton also offers a free shuttle to and from campus. A list of other accommodations is available on the Oakland University Web site under Visitors and Friends > The Community > Hotels.

Attendance/Credit

Participants are required to attend the entire workshop, Monday through Thursday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. (including one hour for lunch) and Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Participants who miss more than 10% of the AP Summer Institute will not be eligible for continuing professional development credit or a certificate of attendance.

The kick-off session will begin on Monday at 7 a.m. in Varner Recital Hall. Subsequent class schedules and locations will be posted on the Web and handed out the first day of class. Weekly class schedules will also be posted on the Web site at www2.oakland.edu/cas/api.cfm

Graduate Credit

Participants have the option to earn up to two Oakland University graduate credits for each institute. Applicants who have a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university must submit a graduate application with a copy of a transcript providing evidence of a terminal degree (bachelor's, master's or doctoral). For information and processing call (248) 370-4386.
